Estimated 6,000 enjoy Jubilee '93

By BRENDA BUNTING
SUN Editor

Jubilee '93 may have attracted one of the largest crowds since organizers sponsored the World's Largest Salad in 1983, which drew an estimated 10,000 people.

Belle Glade's Chief of Police Michael Miller said this was the first time in many years his officers had to park cars in the campground area at the Belle Glade Marina.

"I believe we had about 4,000 people come out on Saturday and another 2,000 on Sunday," said Chief Miller.

Jubilee Committee Secretary Kathy Miller said she felt the great weather was a plus in drawing a larger than normal crowd.

"And Dennis Lee, our headline entertainer who was back for his second year drew people," she said. "I had a lot of people call who said they'd seen him at the South Florida Fair, wanting to know when he was going to be on stage on Saturday and Sunday," she said. "Other than that, I can't think of anything we've done differently this year."

Mrs. Miller said volleyball was also a big draw again this year and many said the fireworks at dusk Saturday night were some of the best in years.

"Most of our vendors did well," said Mrs. Miller, "and a lot of them commented to me that it was so nice to come to a small town because the people here were so nice."

The Black Gold Jubilee was started 15 years ago when a bicentennial committee was formed to plan a celebration for the city's 50th anniversary. The celebration was such a success organizers decided to make it a yearly event.

The Jubilee is also a celebration of the unique "muck" soil in the Glades that allows farmers to grow a multitude of crops including corn, lettuce, radishes, celery, carrots, rice and many acres of sugarcane.

Jubilee '93 kicked off last weekend with a Children's Fishing and Casting contest that attracted an estimated 2,500 parents, grandparents and children. It continued with a tennis tournament, Gospel Sing and Pet Show and the Harvest Queen Pageant on Friday night.

This year's Chairman Diana Seider said she felt Jubilee '93 was a great success.

"People came Saturday and had such a good time that they stayed all day to enjoy themselves," she said. "We couldn't ask for better than that."

The parade attracted 98 entries. Parade Chairman Mickey Pender said the Amara Shriners again this year helped make the parade a big success.

The Pet Show attracted a larger number of people and their pets than in year's past also, according to Cindy Baez, member of the Junior Woman's Club. The Junior Woman's Club members coordinates the children's events each year as well as co-sponsor the Tiny and Little Mr. and Miss Black Gold Contest which was held April 16 this year.

"Brother Bill" found guilty of having sex with a minor

By BRENDA BUNTING
SUN Editor

A West Palm Beach judge has found Pahokee Holy Way Church leader Clarence "Brother Bill" Williams guilty of having sex with an underage girl.

The conviction, announced April 23, may keep Williams in jail for the rest of his life. At least one Pahokee man hopes it does.

"I hope he never draws a free breath again," said William Burroughs, a sergeant with the Florida Highway Patrol.

Sgt. Burroughs says the Holy Way is a cult, similar to the Branch Davidians lead by David Koresh. He should know, he says, he was in "The Way" for a while and he has a son and granddaughter who just got out of the cult a week ago.

"After your article ran last week, my son and his daughter got out," said Sgt. Williams.

But, Sgt. Williams says he won't rest until the rest of the people in the church disband. He says their are still 26 people in the church, which operates a school.

"I want to see the children get out," said Sgt. Burroughs. "I've seen 'Brother Bill'..... page 3

U.S. Sugar, labor advocates appoint former Labor Secretary as mediator to resolve future labor disputes

U.S. Sugar Corporation and farmworker advocates announced the appointment of a former U.S. Secretary of Labor as a mediator to resolve future labor management disputes involving the H2A foreign worker program and create alternative dispute resolution procedures.

Harvard University economist John T. Dunlop, who was Secretary of Labor in the Ford Administration and earlier this month was appointed by the Clinton Administration to head the new White House Commission on the Future of Worker-Management Relations, will work with U.S. Sugar management and farmworker advocates to help maintain Labor Peace agreed to last year by U.S. Sugar and representatives of Florida Rural Legal Services and Washington-based Farmworker Justice Fund.

Dunlop will handle grievances in the dispute resolution procedure if farmworker advocates and U.S. Sugar cannot resolve an issue. He will assist in the creation of a new written policy on how future issues should be resolved. The aim of this process will be to resolve issues before they reach the stage of litigation. He also will work with state and federal agencies on regulatory and administrative issues related to the H2A foreign worker program.

"We are very excited about working with Professor Dunlop and developing a mediation procedure at U.S. Sugar for resolving farmworker issues," said Rob Williams, attorney for Florida Rural Legal Services. "We hope this will become a model for agriculture throughout the country."

"We had tremendous success with Labor Peace reached last year with farmworker advocates," said Robert Boker, senior vice president of U.S. Sugar. "We want to extend our good relationships with our workers and advocate organizations by ensuring a procedure to avoid problems in the future. Professor Dunlop has outstanding credentials and experiences in this area and we all have the greatest confidence in him."

Professor Dunlop said "I applaud these innovative procedures to resolve directly problems of the work place and work community that are too often marred in litigious and lengthy wrangling. Regulatory agencies likewise need to accommodate to the greatest possible extent processes that See Mediator.....Page 3

GDS senior receives Scholar/Athlete award

THE SUN, Thursday, April 29, 1993 - 3

Tom Carter, a senior at Glades Day School, was one of ten recipients of a $500 scholarship awarded by the Treasure Coast Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame at the first annual awards banquet held April 18 at Cardinal Newman High School in West Palm.

Nominated by Glades Day football coach Mandy Perez, Carter was one of 10 scholar/athletes in Palm Beach County to receive the award. Nominees are judged on their academic achievement, leadership and football prowess.

"Although he didn't have great size, Tom pulled his own weight on the field," commented Coach Perez. "He played both ways. As a right guard on offense, he made many key trap blocks, and as a defensive end, he made 24 tackles along with 12 assists, two fumble recoveries and one sack. He's a total team player - a leader both on and off the field."

Carter, who is in the running for valedictorian honors with a 4.0 GPA, is also president of his Senior Class, treasurer of the National Honor Society, sports co-editor of the yearbook, and a two-sport athlete (football and baseball).

He was also named a Commended Student in the 1993 National Merit Scholarship Program.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Carter of Belle Glade, Tom has been accepted at Vanderbilt University in Tennessee as well as the honors program at Auburn and the University of Florida. He plans to major in engineering.

Members of the First United Methodist Church will be celebrating 75 years of service in the Glades this weekend, May 1 and 2. The event will be time of witnessing from the people and pastors.

There will a Saturday night sing at 7 p.m. featuring groups and soloists. A sandwich supper will be provided prior to the sing.

Throughout the weekend celebration, there will be a display of historical documents and picture albums for participants to enjoy. Also, there will be an open house of the church buildings including the parsonage.

The May 2 Sunday worship at 10:30 a.m. will feature a homecoming choir, a history of the church, a sermon, congregational singing and a noon time dinner on the grounds.

The Rev. Donald Padgett will be returning to his home church to present the sermon. Currently, Rev. Padgett serves as the DeLand District Superintendent of The United Methodist Church in the Florida Conference.

"All friends, members, former members and pastors and visitors are welcome to attend and join in the celebration," said Joe Clark, pastor.

Mediator

provide genuine participation and often enhance productivity.

In September, 1992, after more than a year of negotiations, U.S. Sugar, along with Florida Rural Legal Services and Farmworker Justice Fund announced an agreement for a broad-based labor peace plan which would resolve labor issues now and in the future without litigation. The plan included a new pay plan for workers and an informal dispute resolution procedure. It also envisioned working on longer range labor-management issues through an outside mediator.

At the time of the Labor Peace announcement last year, Rob Williams, of Florida Rural Legal Services said: "U.S. Sugar has during the previous year made major reforms, including providing access to its farm labor housing so that (our) outreach workers could talk to the sugar cane cutters about their working conditions. Where problems have been found, the company and we have worked together to resolve them without litigation. We believe any future problems can be solved in the same spirit of cooperation and understanding. The management of U.S. Sugar is to be commended for taking these steps which reaffirm U.S. Sugar's historical leadership in the industry."

Last month Professor Dunlop, Williams and Bruce Goldstein of Farmworker Justice Fund toured U.S. Sugar facilities in Clewiston.

They visited the Company's field operations and labor villages and talked with workers. They also met with U.S. Sugar officials and are working with them to formalize the dispute resolution procedure agreed to under the September Labor Peace accord.

Dunlop is the Lamont University Professor Emeritus at Harvard. He served as Secretary of Labor in the Ford Administration 1975-76.

He has served as arbitrator and impartial chairman of various labor management committees and served on numerous government boards on industrial relations disputes and economic stabilization programs. He has served as mediator of numerous national labor-management disputes.

What's been going on, according to testimony which came out during the trial, is fondling children, sexual intercourse with teenage girls and other illicit acts done in the name of religion. Williams told teenage girls it was a "cleansing ceremony." The 20-year-old victim who testified against Williams at the trial was 14 when she said the abuse started.

"The victim has Sgt. Burroughs respect and admiration. I'm tickled to death that Andrea Hoops was as strong as she was," he said.

He also said Assistant State Attorney Betty Resch "did an outstanding job. About 500 people in Pahokee are going to write letters to her boss saying how much they appreciate how she handled the case," said Sgt. Burroughs.

Revival at Canal Point United Methodist

Rev. Billy Key

The community is invited to attend Canal Point United Methodist Church in Canal Point, 100 Second Street, to hear Rev. Billy Key from Perry, Georgia.

Rev. Key will be sharing the difference Jesus Christ makes in a person's life, according to Jackie McMillan, pastor.

He will be speaking nightly at 7 p.m. Also, Pastor McMillan said the Glades very own Carol Schmidt will be singing and leading a time of praise.

These special revival services will be held Sunday evening, May 2, at 7 p.m. through Wednesday evening, May 5, at 7 p.m.

"Come and God will bless you!" said Pastor McMillan.

HEADACHES

Also called sick headaches, a typical migraine attack, begins with a dull throbbing ache in one area of the head and progresses to a piercing pain. These tortuous attacks may be preceded by a change in the field of vision - a flickering before the eyes, flashes of light or a partial blocking of the vision. They are sometimes accompanied by nausea or vomiting. They are seldom relieved by aspirin. Their duration is from 2 to 48 hours.

Fire department needs upgraded equipment

I would like to talk to the people of Belle Glade about something that has bothered me a long time now. I live and work in the City of Belle Glade and I am seeing something that I cannot believe.

The City recently spent what must have been hundreds of thousands of dollars on garbage trucks and other maintenance vehicles. Meanwhile, our Fire Department responds to life threatening emergency calls in vehicles up to 19 years old.

The newest rescue vehicle is five years old and is constantly breaking down. I would guess because of the high number of calls it responds to. A 1974 pick-up truck is used in its place as the primary rescue truck until repairs are finished.

Needless to say, this truck is also in the shop frequently for days at a time.

The next truck that is moved up is a 1984 Ramcharger 4 x 4. Obviously, not the best choices for rescue trucks.

I should think that the people of Belle Glade need to consider their lives and loved ones as just as important as garbage pick-up, if not more!

Signed,
A Concerned Member of Society

Caller doesn't understand drawing procedure

I observed something this weekend that I would like to share with your readers. At the Belle Glade Marian for the kids Fishing Contest.

After the contest was over, they held a little ceremony to give out the awards. At the beginning of this ceremony, they drew names of the fishing contestants and the child whose name was drawn could pick out the prize he or she wanted.

There were many prizes to be given out, many names to be drawn.

The names were in a wooden box and a teenage girl drew out the names.

What I observed was the teenage girl reading the names on the paper she picked before drawing it completely out of the box. Several times I saw her read the name and then put the paper back in the bottom of the box and draw out another paper.

Her mother was also standing behind the table they were using for this ceremony.

One time I saw the girl show one of the papers to her mother and then she slipped the paper under the box.

I think something else should be done next year about the drawings because things like this are not right.

Are my drawings supposed to be won by chance and not by selection of someone?

Editor's note: We asked Sam Williams, chairman of the Black Gold Jubilee Children's Fishing and Casting Contest to respond to this caller's concern. Here is his response:

"The drawing from the black box is strictly the luck of the draw, not selection of names as indicated in Speak Out. If anyone misunderstood this, we apologize.

Where the worker showed the name to her mother and put it down beside the box, it was because the lady left and they were trying to save time. I wish the person had come forward that day and we would have explained this.

Our workers are dedicated, honest people who sacrifice their time to help make this event a success. Our purpose is to be a positive example for our children, nothing less. If needed, we'll find an alternative to the drawing.

We appreciate all our workers and their devotion to this event and all the parent and children who come and take a part of this."

Some Speak Outs have been held until next week.

National Preschool Immunization Week

National Preschool Immunization Week is April 24-30. The theme for this special week is "Hands Across the Nation for Preschool Immunization."

This is a time for Health practitioners, parents and communities to form partnerships to provide the most basic of health care protection for children -- immunization against dangerous childhood diseases.

Children need to begin immunizations at age two months and complete the basic immunization series by two years of age.

Childhood immunizations are available free of charge from local health clinics, yet only 67 percent of Florida's two-year-old children are completely immunized by age two.

This leaves a large part of this vulnerable population unprotected against dangerous diseases such as Diphtheria, Pertussis (Whooping Cough), Measles, Tetanus, Mumps, Rubella, Haemophilus Influenzae (bacterial meningitis), Polio and Hepatitis B.

These diseases seriously threaten the well-being of our children, but they are preventable.

Many people believe that vaccine-preventable diseases are no longer a threat to preschool children. This is a mistaken belief that places unvaccinated children at great risk of getting these diseases from other unprotected children who have the diseases now.

National Preschool Immunization Week provides an opportunity for everyone to become involved in child health.

Parents can check their children's immunization records to be certain they are up-to-date on immunizations.

If children are behind schedule for needed immunizations, it is never too late to get them up-to-date. A call to a doctor's office of the local Health Department will provide all the details needed on childhood immunization.

Parents are urged not to delay childhood immunizations. Completing basic childhood immunizations by age two is one of the safest, most effective and affordable health protections available to children today.

For more information call the HRS/Palm Beach County Health Unit at 996-1600.

Just in time for summer:

FPL offers test and incentives to increase home cooling efficiency

As seasonal temperatures rise in Florida, so does the likelihood that homeowners will waste a greater proportion of their energy dollars. That's because in most homes, leaks in the air conditioning duct system account for the largest single area of energy waste.

According to the Florida Solar Energy Center, more than 70 percent of Florida homes have leaks in their cooling and heating system ductwork, meaning that the average home wastes one out of every four dollars spent on keeping it cool. In addition, cooling system leaks also can lead to problems with comfort and indoor air quality.

To combat the problem, Florida Power & Light Company offers a program to help homeowners identify and repair leaks in their cooling and heating duct system.

"Homeowners who act now will benefit the most, since air conditioning usage begins climbing during the spring months and peaks in the summer," said Gary Koester, FPL spokesperson.

The first step is a Duct System Test, which is conducted by an FPL field representative. For homeowners living in detached, single-family homes, FPL will pay $25 toward the $55 cost of the test.

Within two hours of completion, a detailed report will be prepared identifying and measuring all leaks in the system. It also will describe recommended repairs.

Homeowners who choose to make the repairs can receive up to $225 in additional incentives from FPL.

"That's just the beginning of the savings, since the cooling system will be operating much more efficiently," said Koester. "Repairs to the duct system can reduce subsequent electric bills by as much as six to 12 percent, and make a home much more comfortable during the hottest time of the year."

For additional information, call 1-800-DIAL-FPL (1-800-342-5375), extension 58, and ask for the Duct System Test.

Ask Dr. Boltson

Dr. David Boltson is the associate director of the Western Palm Beach County Mental Health Clinic in Belle Glade, and is a licensed psychologist in private practice in Lake Worth.

Dear Dr. Boltson:

My six-year-old daughter has started telling lies, stealing, and bullying other children.

She didn't use to be this way, but lately, it seems no matter what I say to her, or what I do to punish her for her bad behavior, nothing helps.

I have been married three times and I realize the changes at home probably have contributed to the problem, but I would like some advice as to how to deal with this problem.

Karen used to be such a warm, loving child, but now she is having problems in school and at home.

Is part of this just a stage she's going through or do you think it's a bigger problem?

Sincerely
JS
Belle Glade

Dear JS:

As children grow older it is normal for them to try to assert their independence by initiating actions and not listening to their parents. What you have briefly described however, sounds like more than a normal assertion of initiative.

Children who are happy feel secure do not need to steal, lie or bully others.

Since you don't know what is on her mind, it appears that better communication with your child would be a good place to start. It is important to try to better understand her feelings and needs since she acts badly so often. You need to try to "catch her being good."

That is, when she is behaving well, you need to praise her and to encourage a mutual expression of feelings.

Even when she behaves badly you need to clarify that it is her "bad behavior" (her actions) that you are upset about, and are not devaluing her worth as a child or a daughter.

You might calmly share some examples of things that make you mad, or fearful, so that she will be more encouraged to admit negative feelings that she herself sometimes bears.

She needs to learn a more appropriate way of expressing negative feelings.

In your letter you mentioned you have been married three times. Although such changes were likely disruptive to your child, positive actions today will be more helpful to your child than regretting the past.

It is not clear from your letter whether you are married currently, but if you are, you must ensure that your husband and yourself are in agreement over general parenting, communication, and disciplinary styles.

Likewise, if you can recruit your daughter's teachers for feedback and a response strategy, a successful intervention will be more likely.

It will work best if all or most persons involved with your daughter follow a similar intervention and/or discipline plan.

Basically, you need to apply a two-pronged approach towards your daughter. You need to express loving concern, but you also need to make it clear that specific disciplinary sanctions will apply for unacceptable behavior.

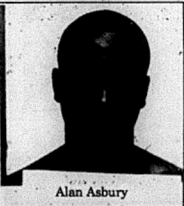

Additionally, if you openly discuss your own hopes and fears, your daughter will be more likely to admit negative feelings to you. A good children's therapist can often help facilitate the communication process between yourself and your daughter.

If you would like to anonymously inquire about issues regarding yourself or your acquaintances, you may do so by writing to Dr. Boltson. You don't even have to give your name or address. Just mail all questions to:

Tennis Tournament finals were held Sunday

The Black Gold Jubilee Tennis Tournament was recently held during the week of April 12-18, with final competition being played on Sunday, April 18.

Once again, the tournament was a huge success thanks to all the participants and spectators. A special thanks goes out to Mike Royal from the Black Gold Jubilee Committee for sponsoring this event by Popeye's. The weather couldn't have been better and a fun week was enjoyed by all. Here is a list of the winners.

Men's Singles 'A': 1st-Johnny Tellesha, 2nd-Michael Metz. Men's Singles 'B': 1st-Ralph Townsend; 2nd-Alberto Loret de Mola, Jr.

Men's Doubles 'B': 1st-Rick Cako & Tom Dawkins. 2nd-Kenny Caviness & Ralph Townsend. Men's Doubles 'C': 1st-Gary Chancy & Graham Chancy; 2nd-Nelson Gumucio & Steve Beststra.

Horseshoe Contest always a favorite

Horseshoes have always been a favorite amongst the men. This year's tournament was no different.

Even though it seems relatively easy to throw something the shape of a horse shoe, and to ring a pole in the ground, it's really not as easy as you think. Throwing horseshoes takes a strong arm, lots of patients, good aim, and a lot of skill.

Conratulations guys.

Volleyball: another great turn out this year

This year there was two divisions, the Open Division, for both men and women, at the Black Gold festival.

The first volleyball tournament was held at the 1989 festival, and has since grown to be one of the favorite games. Teams come from all around the lake area and the east coast to participate.

There was no Senior Division.

A Duda float wins first place for Best Theme

Glades Day School received first place in both the Best School and Best Band categories. Boy Scout Troop 622 was awarded First place for Best Youth Marching Group.

All of the floats were extremely beautiful this year and everyone enjoyed watching as they paraded down main street.

A Duda won First place for Best Theme, and Amara Shmiers took First place in the Best Organization category.

The race is on, and they're off and crawling

The Baby Crawl is an exciting race. You're never really sure what they are going to do from one minute to the next. Maybe they will get straight, or maybe they will get right at the finish line, stop, sit up, look you dead in the face and wonder "why is mommy yelling so loud?"

It was a tough race, but the babies did well. Congratulations to all the winners.

Is there a needle in this hay stack or what?

No there is money and the kids go wild looking for it. This is undoubtedly their favorite event.

In the ages 0-5 division

Steven Stuart came up a winner, and Brock Markham was the winner in the 6-9 age group.

Way to go guys.

Don't drop that egg.....

It could be sticky business if you messed up and missed.

Approximately 20 kids had fun throwing eggs at each other, and mom didn't even mind.

Some of the kids missed the egg and were out on the first round, but some of them ended up throwing the egg about 10 feet.

Brian Lewis and Clay Anderson won First place in the 5-7 age group, and Ginnie Anderson and Shelby Markham took Second place.

Casey Underwood and Eaton Worth received First place in the 8-9 age division, and Justin Garrett and Jay Bass won Second place, Jeffery Ray and Brandon Holley took Third place.

In the 10-12 age group First place went to Randy Worth and Josh Davis.

1993 Black Gold Festival was a huge success. Everyone had fun!

Hula Hoop'n....Five-year-old Sharief Abraham, son of Mohammed and Souhila Abraham (Mr. Shrimp) in Belle Glade had the hip action down right during the Hula Hoop Contest at Saturday's Black Gold Jubilee.

Swing those hips baby.....

That's the main idea in the Hula Hoop contest.

This year's winners are: 5-6 age group: First place Jaime Alvarez; Second place Kimberly Holley; Third place Shelby Markham.

In the 7-8 year old division the winners were: First place Susan Antanacion; Second place Arvin Owen won Third place.

These kids could really swing those hoops.

Shuck and Jive....no, Shuck and Win.....

Corn Shucking is one event that kids of all ages enjoy.

In the age divisions were from 3 to 11.

In the 3-5 year old division were: First place Justin Scott; Second place Ivan Navarro; Third place Shelby Griffin.

In the 6-8 age group First place was won by Courtney

Shuck. These kids could really shuck corn.

Grab your sack, we're off to the races

In the 9 year old division Jonathan Street won First place; Gary Brooks Second place; and Ajames Kieckly won Third place.

Brandon Holley won First place in the 10-11 age group; Susan Miller took Second place; and Carla Baez won Third place.

Becky Stambaugh won First place in the 12-13 age group; Jeri Bradley won Second place; and Yania Kieckly won Third place.

It was a "hopping" good race.

Hard Shell or Soft Shell?

It could be a fairly race for this place.

On the other hand, in the Hard Shell race Johnathon Allen's turtle showed great signs of long slow strides to come in First place.

But stretching those little legs and crawling like he had never crawled before was the turtle belonging to Kristen & Alecia.

In the Soft Shell race Clay Anderson's turtle came in first, bringing up the rear for Third place.

It's a despair. Stephanie Stein's turtle came creeping in.

Bounce, Bounce, Aim, Bounce, Bounce, Shoot - 2 points.

Well at least that's the way the pro's do it.

The Basketball Shoot is always fun to watch, the crowd always seems to take a deep breath and hold it, until the ball either hits the hoop or misses. But either way they always cheer for the shooter.

In the 0-5 age group the winners are: First place Shelby Markham; Second place Kyle Livingston; Third place was a three way tie between, Phillip Swager, Troy Swager, and

What a way to cool off, and it's cool with mom.....

Playing in the water is one thing kids have enjoyed for years, and this is one way to do it so mom doesn't get mad. You enter the Water Balloon Toss held at the Black Gold festival.

This year's winners are: 3-6 age group: First place Bailey and Troy Swager; Second place Jamie Alvarez and Alleigh Schlechter; Third place Ginny Anderson and Shelby Markham.

Grab the cat, bring the dog, rabbit and turtle...we're off to a pet show, and I think my dog is the prettiest.

Well, of course everyone thinks that their animal is the prettiest, that's why so many kids bring their pets to the annual Pet Show.

First place for Best Show Dog was awarded to Lee Gray; Second place went to Jennifer Ortega; Third place went to Christina Leno.

In the Best Show Cat division Morris owned by Ryan Whitlock really cleaned up. Morris not only won First he also won Second and Third. Way to go Morris.

The Smallest Pet award went to Joak Tripp, he entered his pet turtle, and Brandon Gay, he entered his pet Rabbit.

Boy Scouts construct rope bridge to exhibit their skill

The Glades District Scout show was held Sat. at the Belle Glade Marina in conjunction with the Black Gold Jubilee. The Cub Scout Packs attending this event were Pack 623 from Pahokee, Pack 622 from Belle Glade, Pack 665 from South Bay and Pack 619 from Clewiston.

Glades District Pinewood Derby Race finals, in the Tiger Cubs (1st grade) division: First place Michael Herring-Pack 622; Second place Michael Bryant-Pack 622; Third place Preston Bass-Pack 622.

Wolf (2nd Grade): First place Justin Langoria-Pack 623; Second place Lamarca Williams-Pack 665; Third place Brian Lowe-Pack 619.

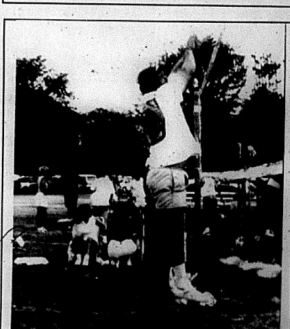

Boys (3rd grade): First place Wally Zaccagnino-Pack 623; Second place Christopher Sost; Third place Samuel Turner-Pack 622.

Webelos (4th & 5th graders): First place Robert Hammock; Second place Michael Peaden-Pack 623; Third place Antwon Allen-Pack 665.

Oh, Baby!

Popeye said for me to eat my spinach. 19-month-old Aleigh Miller enjoys the curly fries at the Jubilee. Her parents, Allen and Shelly Miller of Belle Glade say eating is one of Aleigh's favorite activities.

He doesn't look Blind, Crippled and Crazy...but that was the name of the team Tim Man played with during the Jubilee Volleyball Tournament. Tim's team took second place in the open division.

Wow! It looks so easy when Mom does it...Leanna Robinson peeled a layer at a time from her ear of corn during the corn shucking contest. Needless to say, she didn't take first place. Leanna is the two-year-old daughter of Ken and Vera Robinson of Belle Glade.

Bank of Pahokee - "Best Overall" &amp; "Best Business Float"

Bank of Pahokee...won Best Overall float and Best Business Float in Saturday's parade. There were 98 entries in the Black Gold Jubilee Parade this year, according to Parade Chairman Mickey Pender.

A crop of beauties

A Duda gets "Best Theme Float" award

Home grown...Fresh produce grown in the Glades was on display on the A Duda float in Saturday's parade. Duda won a trophy for first place for the Best Theme Float.

Waving the Red, White, and Blue

The Gold Coast Ski Club put on a spectacular show for the crowd on Sunday afternoon at the Jubilee...and there wasn't an alligator in sight to enjoy the show.

Don't miss "Steel Magnolias" this Mother's Day weekend

It's only fitting that with magnolias in bloom, Actor's Community Theater should present the award winning play "Steel Magnolias" this coming weekend.

While many have seen and enjoyed the film version, few are aware that this play is a true story written, ironically enough, by a man.

Robert Harling has dedicated this play in the memory of his sister, Susan Harling Robinson.

The setting of the story is Chinquapin, Louisiana and while the play retains most of the lines from the memorable film version, there is only one scene. All the action takes place in Truvy's beauty shop.

There are no male characters appearing on stage. The audience is aware of them, however, through the ladies' dialogue as they discuss their lives and their loves.

Audiences will not be disappointed at the lack of scene changes or lack of male characters. The cast is a blend of warmth, compassion, idiocy and neuroticism.

Truvy worries over her husband's unemployment and lack of compassion and her kid's antisocial tendencies. Clairee is learning to deal with widowhood and trying to find a substitute for football in her life.

Shelby is still the prettiest girl in town romanticizing marriage and motherhood. M'Lynn is balancing her career and concern for family matters.

A forlorn misfit, Annette seeks her identity in the security of her friend's arms.

Wouiser Bourdeaux's dog is still having a nervous condition brought on by her mistress' ongoing civil war with her neighbor, Drum.

Audiences will not want to miss "Steel Magnolias" on May 7 and 8 at 8 p.m. and May 9 at 2 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the box office.
